

WYGGESTONS
PERSONAL AND MONITORING
INFORMATION

Wyggestons is committed to equal opportunities in employment. We aim to select the best people for the post regardless of gender, age, marital status, disability, colour, race, nationality or ethnic or national origin, national identify, sexual orientation and religion or belief. We also aim to ensure that you are not disadvantaged by job conditions or requirements which are not relevant.

To ensure that this policy is working, we seek to collect information about people applying for jobs. The information that you give will be treated as strictly confidential, will be used solely for monitoring/administrative purposes and will not be used for selection purposes.

Should you be appointed to Wyggestons this information will form part of your personal record and will be subject to the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1988.
